POETRY.

MOTHER, CAN I GO!

I am writing to you, mother, knowing well what you would say,

When you read with tearful fondness all I write to you to-day;

Knowing well the flame of ardor on a loyal mother's part,

That will kindle with each impulse, with each throbbing of your heart,

I have heard my country calling for her sons that still are true,

I have loved that country, mother, only next to God and you;

And my soul is springing forward to resist her bitter foe;

Can I go, my dearest mother? tell me, mother, can I go?

From the battened walls of Sumter, from the wild waves of the sea,

I have heard the cry of succor, as the voice of God to me;

In prosperity I loved her, in her days of dark distress,

With your spirit in me, mother, could I love that country less?

They have pierced her heart with treason, they have caused her sons to bleed,

They have robbed her in her kindness, they have triumphed in her need;

They have trampled on her standard, and she calls me in her woe;

Can I go, my dearest mother? tell me, mother, can I go?

I am young and slender, mother—they would call me yet a boy,

But I know the land I live in, and the blessing I enjoy;

I am old enough, my mother, to be loyal, proud and true.

To the faithful sense of duty I have ever learned from you.

We must conquer this rebellion; let the doubting heart be still;

We must conquer or perish. We must conquer, and we will!

But the faithful must not falter, and shall I be wanting? No!

Bid me go, my dearest mother! tell me, mother, can I go?

He who led his chosen people, in their efforts to be free

From the tyranny of Egypt, will be merciful to me;

Will protect me by His power, whatsoe'er I undertake;

Will return me home in safety, dearest mother, for your sake.

Or should this my bleeding country, need a victim such as me,

I am nothing more than others who have perished to be free.

On her bosom let me slumber, on her altar let me lie;

I am not afraid, dear mother, in so good a cause to die.

There will come a day of gladness, when the people of the Lord

Shall look proudly on the banner, which his mercy has restored!

When the stars in perfect number on their azure field of blue,

Shall be clustered in a Union, then and ever firm and true,

I may live to see it, mother, when the patriot's work is done;

And your heart so full of kindness, will beat proudly for your son;

Or through tears your eyes may see it with a sadly thoughtful view,

And may love it still more dearly for the cost it won from you.

I have written to you, mother, with a consciousness of right—

I am thinking of you fondly, with a loyal heart to-night;

When I have your noble bidding, which shall tell me to press on,

I will come and see you, mother, come and kiss you, and be gone,

In the sacred name of freedom, and my country as her due.

In the name of law and justice, I have written this to you.

I am eager, anxious, longing, to resist my country's foe;

Shall I go, my dearest mother? tell me, mother, shall I go?

THE MOTHER'S REPLY.

Go, my boy, and Heaven bless you! I have read each precious line

Of your heart's responsive throbbings to a higher call than mine.

God hath spoken—you have heard him—and though tears these eyes bedim,

Your affection for your mother shall not mar your love for Him;

Could I bid you stay from fondness, when the ever-loving hand

Marks your path to duty clearly for the safety of your land?

No! 'tis your duty to be a patriot, and 'tis mine to prove true;

Go, my boy, where duty calls you, and my heart shall follow you;

Go in faith, and feel protection in a power supreme, divine;

Should a bullet pierce your body it will also enter mine.

Do I think of this in sorrow? Does my love and fear renew?

Do I tremble at the prospect? No, my son, no more than you.

Dear to me is every pathway where your precious feet have trod;

But I give you fondly, freely, to your country and my God.

You and I shall never falter in the work we have to do;

Go, my boy, where duty calls you, and my heart shall follow you!

I shall pray for you—how often—with the waking hour of morn,

Through the labors of my household, and when night is coming on;

If a mother's prayers can keep you 'mid the dangers you incur,

God will bring you back again to happiness and love.

I will never doubt the goodness that has kept you until now,

That has kept the evil from your heart, the shadow from your brow,

And I know that it will keep you in the path you must pursue;

Go, my boy, where duty calls you, and my heart shall follow you.

If my boy were less a hero, less the man in thought and deed,

I had less to give my country in her trying hour of need;

And I feel a pride in knowing that to serve his cause Divine,

From the hearth stone goes no braver heart than that which goes from mine.

I have loved you from the hour that my lips first pressed your brow.

Even tenderly, but never quite as tenderly as now.

All I have is His who gave it, whatso'er he bids me do;

Go, my boy, where duty calls you, and my heart shall follow you!

I shall miss you through the spring time when the orchard is in bloom,

When the smiling face of Nature bathes its beauty in perfume,

When the birds are sweetly singing by the door and on the wing,

I shall think of you who always loved to pause and hear them sing.

Long will seem the waning hours through the drowsy summer day,

With my boy exposed to dangers on a soil so far away.

But my spirit shall not murmur, though tears bedim my view;

Go, my boy, where duty calls you, and my heart shall follow you!

You will come and see your mother, come and kiss her, as you say,

From her lips receive the blessing that shall cheer you on your way;

From her fond embrace go forward to resist your country's foe,

With the comforting assurance that your mother ever will be so.

Heaven protect, and bless, and keep you; ho! by angels guard your way;

Keep your spirit from temptation and your feet from going astray.

To your country ever faithful, to your country ever true—

Go, my boy, where duty calls you and my heart shall follow you!

Washtenaw Soldiers' Monument.

The following circular has been received which explains itself.

To T. Nide, C. Joslin, Prof. Estabrook, S. Post, John Gilbert and B. M. Cutcheon:—

Sirs:—The undersigned have been appointed by the citizens of Ann Arbor a committee to take measures looking to the erection of a monument to commemorate the patriotism and services of the gallant men from this county who have laid down their lives in defense of the Union. It is the belief of those who originated the movement, that the men who have so nobly fought and so bravely died deserve a monument that shall preserve the name of each to future generations, as one of the noble army of martyrs to whom the country owes the preservation of its liberties. No State has done better in this great and glorious successful war than the State of Michigan; and among the counties which have done well, Washtenaw stands with the first. The brave and skillful leaders who guided our armies to victory will be commemorated in the history of the country; but every private in the ranks, who faithfully performed his duty as equally deserving of honor, and it becomes his neighbors and comrades to see that an enduring record is made of his services.

We therefore respectfully and earnestly request you to unite with us in this sacred duty. That all may be equally and justly represented in the consultations preliminary to entering upon the work, each township and city of the county is invited to send a number of delegates proportioned to its population to a county convention, to be held at the Court House in Ann Arbor, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of Thursday, the 29th inst., at which time the plan for the monument, the place of location, and the proper steps to secure the necessary means for its erection, will be considered. We recommend that this convention consist of a hundred delegates; and the number which your township will be entitled to under that basis, will be—according to the census of 1860—

We would also recommend that, for the election of these delegates, a meeting be held at each place and hour as you shall designate on Saturday, the 24th inst. And we address this circular to you as active and influential citizens who must feel a common interest with us in the object, with the request that you give public notice of the meeting, and secure a good attendance, that delegates may be chosen who will attend the county convention, and lend their active aid in the movement.

JUSTUS CARPENTER,
CHARLES TRAPP,
EDWARD CLARK,
HIRAM J. BEAKES,
GEORGE W. AMBROSE,
THOMAS M. COOLEY.

Ann Arbor, June 14th, 1865. Committee.

In accordance with the above, all our citizens who feel an interest in this noble enterprise will meet at the office of C. Joslin on Saturday next, at 7 o'clock P. M. The gentlemen to whom this circular is addressed will act as a preliminary committee for the furtherance of its object, and we hope some of the influential residents of the township will join hands with them, and send such a delegation as will be a credit to the cause.

Circuit Court.

The June term of Court commenced last week, but nearly all the civil cases were put over. James and J. D. Wilson, the pickpockets arrested here on the 19th ult. have been tried, convicted and sentenced, the former to one year and the latter to three in the State prison. The negro Jackson was sent home for three years. The girl Alice Brown, whom we mentioned as arrested for stoning the cars, confessed her guilt and was sent to jail for sixty days.

An Improvement.

With a view to bring into general use Stamped envelopes bearing requests for the return of unclaimed letters, the Post-Office Department proposes to furnish the same with the name, business and Post-Office address of the writers printed in full, not exceeding four lines across the end of the envelope, including the request, without extra charge, if not less than one thousand are ordered. The Post Master of this city has samples and schedule of prices, and is authorized to receive orders. It is a desirable improvement for business men, and should receive their attention.

Normal School.

The present Normal term closes on Wednesday next. The exercises this term will consist of the lecture before the Lyceum by B. F. Taylor that has been announced. Every one that has read Mr. Taylor's editorials, correspondence or poetry, cannot but see that this will be a literary treat for all. We hope our citizens will show their appreciation of real talent, and that all who possibly can, will go.

Monetary.

The Banks and bankers in this city, on and after the 1st of July, 1865, will receive New York and New England State bank notes on deposit at 1/2 per cent. discount.—All demand checks will be paid in U. S., National, and Detroit city bank notes.

Fits.

Gentlemen wishing fashionable garments made to order, will be pleased to learn that Mr. THOMAS WILKINSON has made an engagement with S. Post & Co., and will attend exclusively to the manufacturing of garments to order. They have a fine stock of cloths and cassimeres, and will replenish often.—Give them a call, if you want a tasty fit.

MARRIED.

MAVIS—PECK.—On the 16th inst., By the Rev. C. E. Hewitt, John D. Mavis and Clara M. Peck, all of Ypsilanti.

TOWER—BROWN.—Also, by the same, Jackson B. Tower and Martha C. Brown, both of Ypsilanti.

NERVOUS DEBILITY, Seminal weakness, etc. Can be Cured, by one who has really cured himself and hundreds of others, and will tell you nothing but the truth. Address with Stamp, EDWARD H. TRAYER, Lock Box, Boston, Mass.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

"The soul I sway by and the heart I bear, Shall never sag with doubt, nor shake with fear."

Thus exclaimed the doughty Scottish Chief when arrayed for battle; and thus may all cry who arm themselves against the Legions of Dyspepsia, Headache, Ague, Sallowness, Langour, Liver Complaint, and all their concomitant evils, with a bottle or two of Plantation Bitters, the original S. T.—1860.—X. This great Tonic which is still increasing in popular favor, and is effecting more cures than ever before, is emphatically the Poor Man's Friend, and the Rich Man's Blessing. Plantation Bitters are sold by all respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"I never did repent for doing good and shall not now," therefore advise all afflicted with Catarrh or Cold in the Head, to use Dr. D. H. Seelye's Liquid Catarrh Remedy, a sure and permanent cure.

CAUTION.

BY THE AMERICAN WATCH COMPANY
It having come to our knowledge that imitations of the American Watch have been put out upon the market, calculated by their utter worthlessness to injure the reputation of our genuine products, to protect our own interests and the public from imposition, we again publish the trade marks by which our watches may invariably be known.

The first has the name
"AMERICAN WATCH CO., Waltham, Mass." engraved on the inside plate.

The second has the name
"APPLETON, TRACY & CO., Waltham, Mass., engraved on the inside plate.

The third has the name
"P. S. BARTLETT, Waltham, Mass." on the inside plate.

All the above styles have the name "American" with Co. painted on the dial, and are warranted in every respect.

The fourth has
"WILLIAM ELLERY, Boston, Mass." engraved on the inside plate, and is not named on the dial.

All the above watches are made of various sizes and are sold in gold or silver cases, as may be desired.

It is hardly possible for us to accurately describe the numerous imitations to which we have alluded. They are usually inscribed with names so nearly approaching our own as to escape the notice of inexperienced buyers. Some are represented as being made by the "Union Watch Co., of Boston,"—no such company existing. Some are named the "Soldier's watch," to be sold as our fourth or Wm. Ellery style, usually known as the "soldier's watch." Others are named the "Appleton Watch Co.," others the "P. S. Bartlett," instead of our P. S. Bartlett; beside many varieties named so as to convey the idea that they are the productions of this company.

We also caution the public, and particularly soldiers, against buying certain articles CALLED watches, so freely advertised in illustrated papers as "Army Watches," "Officers' Watches," "Magic Time Observers," "Arcana Watches," &c., the prices of which are said to be from $7 to $16. A good watch in these times, cannot be afforded for the money.

ROBBINS & APPLETON,
Agents for the American Watch Co., 182, Broadway, N. Y.

TO DIE.

In a bad cause—and those who fall in the rebel ranks undoubtedly do—is foolish, but on the other hand, dying for a good cause, as those who are wise and prudent enough to remedy the defects of nature with CRISTADORO'S HAIR DYE, are doing every day, in every city of the Union, is eminently praiseworthy. The peaceful revolution is going on throughout the whole land, and thus beauty and harmony supplant homeliness and incongruity.

Manufactured by J. CRISTADORO, No 6 Astor House, New York. Sold by all druggists. Applied by all Hairdressers.

REMARKABLE CURE.

OF STIFF KNEE, BY ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS.—How many persons, by stepping on a piece of orange peel have been lame for life. A gentleman was thus suddenly thrown down and violently sprained his knee. He was six months confined to the house, though he had the best medical advice. As a last resort, an eminent physician was called in to see if anything more could be done. After examination he said, "My opinion is, your knee will never be bent again." He recommended the permanent stiffening of the knee as speedily as possible by the use of plaster of paris; but the patient, before trying the application and having a stiff knee for life, enveloped it in our Porous Plasters, and in less than two months, his knee was perfectly cured.

Principal agency, Brandeth House, New York. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

A Card to Invalids.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of Nervous Weakness, Early decay, diseases of the Urinary and Seminal Organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by baneful and vicious habits. Great numbers have already been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the receipt for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge.

Please inclose a stamped envelope, addressed to yourself.

WHISKERS.—Those wishing a fine set of whiskers, a nice moustache, or a beautiful head of glossy hair will please read the card of Thos. F. Chapman in another part of his paper. 45

FINANCIAL.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN!

THIRD SERIES.
$230,000,000!

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury the undersigned general subscription agent for the sale of U. S. Securities, offers to the public the third series of Treasury notes bearing 7-30 per cent. interest per annum, known as the 7-30 LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of July 15th, 1865, and are payable 3 years from that date in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

United States 5-20 Six per cent. Gold Bearing Bonds.

These bonds are now worth a handsome premium, and are exempt, as are all Government bonds, from State, county, and municipal taxation, which adds from 1 to 3 per cent. per annum to their value, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sold to any bank or banker.

The interest at 7.30 per cent. amounts to One cent per day on a $50 note.
Two cents " " " $100 "
Ten cents " " " $500 "
One dollar " " " $1000 "
$1 " " " $5000 "

The Notes of the Third Series are precisely similar in form and privileges to those already sold, except the government reserves to itself the option of paying interest in gold at 6 per cent. instead of 7-30 in currency. Subscribers will deduct the interest in currency up to July 15th, when they subscribe.

The delivery of the Notes of this series will commence on the 1st of June, and will be made promptly after that date.

The slight change made in the conditions of the Third Series affects only the matter of interest. The return to specie payments, in the event of which only will the option to pay interest in gold be availed of, will so reduce and equalize prices that purchases made with 6 per cent. in gold, will be fully equal to those made with 7-30ths per cent. in currency. This is the

ONLY LOAN IN THE MARKET.

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the great

POPULAR LOAN OF THE PEOPLE.

Less than $230,000,000 of the loan authorized by the last Congress are now on the market.—This amount, at the rate at which it is being absorbed, will be subscribed for within four months, and then the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing subscriptions to other loans. It now seems probable that no considerable amount will be offered to the public after this series.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks and private bankers throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions and par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only will be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.
